1. RUTH PASTINE The artist explores “saturated and nuanced color relationships” in her new show, “Present Tense,” which will be on display at the Carnegie Art Museum, 424 South C Street, Oxnard. An opening reception takes place 5-7 p.m. Saturday; it's free for members, $5 for nonmembers. The exhibit runs through May 24. Information: 385-8157, carnegieam.org or ruthpastine.com.

2. ORCHID SHOW Experience the colorful sights and fragrant smells of the 70th Santa Barbara International Orchid Show, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday to Sunday at Earl Warren Showgrounds, 3400 Calle Real, Santa Barbara. Blooming orchid plants, orchid-related art and growing supplies will be for sale. $12 general. sborchidshow.com.

3. LAUGH OUT LOUD COMEDY Guitar in hand, and tongue firmly in cheek, Mark Eddie (pictured) will riff on pop anthems, music headlines and rock legends when he performs during Laugh Out Loud Comedy Night at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Paseo Camarillo Cinemas, 390 N. Lantana St., Camarillo. Jason Love and Bryan Kellen also will perform. $15. 383-2267; regencymovies.com.

4. CUTTING EDGE Inspired by Yoko Ono's 1964 “Cut Piece” performance, Ursula Gallenkamp will don a black dress, sit in a chair, and allow onlookers to cut off pieces of the garment to “reveal the natural appearance” of a mature women's body. It's part of Saturday's 5-7 p.m. opening reception for “She. Old. Nude. Beautiful” at Buenaventura Gallery, 700 E. Santa Clara St., Ventura. The show features works by Gallenkamp and Dorothea Heger. 648-1235; buenaventuragallery.org.
